Chapter 1 by Caitybeldy

The first thing I remember after waking up from death was feeling oh so cold.
Then I registered the feeling of floating.
And then, my eyes opened.

My arms instinctively began flailing and my legs began kicking as I choked in the ice cold water. My hazel eyes stung at the sudden exposure to the freezing murkiness. After a few moments, I surface, spluttering as I cough up dirty water and blinking in order to get the worst of the liquid out of my eyes.

After the initial shock and confusion began to settle, I looked around and realized I was in the lake, at the mouth of the river. I had no clue how I got there. My memories were all fuzzy, as though my brain was re-booting. After a few moments of just glancing around in panic, I began to re-trace my steps.

What happened before I died?
